

HEALTH SERVICES NEAR YOU, FOR YOU.

Latrobe Community Health Service acknowledges all First Nations people as the traditional custodians on whose ancestral lands our offices are situated.

We recognise and pay our respects to Elders - past, present and emerging - and all First Nations people and communities across Australia.

Latrobe Community Health Service aims to provide a safe and welcoming health service for everyone. We are committed to promoting the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people accessing our services.

SUPPORT SERVICES START HERE FOR FIRST NATIONS COMMUNITIES

WE WANT EVERYONE TO LEAD HEALTHIER, HAPPIER LIVES

Latrobe Community Health Service is a non-government, not-for-profit health service.

We provide health and support services, including GP, dental, counselling, and carer support.

When we provide services, we treat you as a whole person.

WHO CAN ACCESS OUR SERVICES?

Everyone is welcome to contact us to find out about services they may want to use.

Eligibility criteria may apply for some services.

WHEN ARE SERVICES AVAILABLE?

Most of our services are available Monday to Friday, from 8.30am to 5pm. However, some services take place after-hours or in your home or local community gathering place.

HOW MUCH DO OUR SERVICES COST?

Some services are free if you meet the eligibility criteria, but some you will have to pay for. We will let you know when you book your appointment. Sometimes your private health cover can also pay for some of the cost.
